April 9 from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM

The Banquet, 10332 - 103 Street NW, Edmonton, above the Canadian Icehouse.

APPI and the ITE Northern Alberta Section are pleased to invite you to an insightful presentation and discussion with David Cooper, RPP, MCIP, Principal of Leading Mobility Consulting, the author of the Canadian Urban Transit Association (CUTA's) "Housing is on the Line" report.

This event is dedicated to addressing the critical intersections between transit and housing in the Edmonton region. CUTA's recent "Housing is on the Line" report offers 17 recommendations across five policy pillars, aimed at enhancing public transit's role in tackling Canada's housing crisis. These pillars focus on activating land around transit stations, evolving transit authorities' mandates, ensuring inclusivity in housing developments, streamlining approval processes, and maximizing investments to better integrate public transit and housing supply.
