FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – December 19, 2024

APPI 2025 Legacy Award

Call for Submissions

APPI is offering a monetary award to assist with the expenses incurred to:

1. Attend and present at a national or international conference (virtual or in-person), or other conferences within the APPI jurisdiction: or
2. Undertake planning research and/or the documentation of planning research and sharing of that research. This award MAY be used to fulfill post-secondary requirements at the PhD level and postdoctoral student research, but not for an academic's research in the normal course of a position for which financial compensation is received.

Priority will be given to applications that advance excellence in planning and relate their presentation or research to Alberta, Northwest Territories, or Nunavut.

Award winners will receive between $1,000 - $3,000.

Who can apply?

The Legacy Award is open to all Regulated members in good standing. Applicants may submit for both options but can only win one award.

The deadline for submissions is 3:00 PM Thursday, February 27, 2025.

For information on the submission details, the evaluation criteria and the online application form, click here Legacy Award Application Form | Alberta Professional Planners Institute

Use the online system to complete the Application form and upload all related files as specified.

The Award recipients will be advised on April 8, 2025. The results will be posted on May 8, 2025 here: Legacy Award | Alberta Professional Planners Institute The APPI Volunteer Appreciation and Awards Celebration will be in Edmonton on May 8th.

APPI is committed to equity, diversity, inclusion and accessibility (EDIA). Those individuals who identify as First Nations, Inuit, Métis, LGBTQ2S+, persons with disabilities, women and other equity deserving groups, are encouraged to apply this award.
